

Communication and Language

- Listening to stories – Handa's Surprise, Oliver's Vegetables, The Easter Story and non-fiction text about how things grow
- Developing narratives in their play
- Learning new vocabulary and participating in whole class discussions

Physical Development

- P.E. lesson learning about balancing, jumping and travelling using different apparatus
- Writing short sentences independently, and mastering correct pencil hold and control. Continuing to learn to write all letters in the alphabet both lowercase and uppercase correctly
- Developing fine motor skills through everyday play

Literacy

- Listening to stories – Handa's Surprise, Oliver's Vegetables, The Easter Story and non-fiction text about how things grow
- Developing understanding of what a fiction and non-fiction book is and how to identify them
- Learning to recognise all phase 2 and 3 letter sounds and tricky words
- Developing independence in sentence writing using phonic knowledge
- Using their knowledge of segmenting and blending to help them read a range of different stories and sentences.

Ready, Steady, Grow

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Jigsaw PHSE lessons, Stormbreak and Kipsy
- Learning to always have a go and try new tasks
- Learning to resolve conflicts independently
- Learning about ways to keep our bodies healthy

Expressive Arts and Design

- Developing scissor skills through a range of activities
- Learning new techniques such as collage and exploring colour mixing
- Exploring African music and creating movement to music

Understanding the World

- Discussions about how things grow and where food comes from
- Life cycles of plants and animals – Where does our food come from?
- Farms past and present – How has farming changed
- Celebrations - Easter

Maths

- Exploring composition of numbers 9 and 10
- Re-capping repeating patterns
- Looking at the properties and vocabulary used to describe 3D shapes
- Continuing to develop subitising skills
- Understanding how quantities change